What a Show!!

Did you enjoy the show!?

A huge congratulations to all our fantastic performers who kept the audience thoroughly entertained on 26th April. Their behaviour, both on and off stage, was exemplary, and I am incredibly proud of every single one of them.

It was a very full-on weekend, but every moment was worth it—and I loved being part of it. I truly hope you enjoyed it as much as I did.

A special thank you once again goes to everyone who helped behind the scenes: from creating and selling programmes, supporting and supervising students, styling hair, and offering encouragement throughout. Your efforts did not go unnoticed and are deeply appreciated.

I've also received some wonderful feedback and kind messages, which I am truly grateful for. The beautiful flowers I received are still going strong—although I have caught Trudy having a nibble! I also very much enjoyed taking the time to read all the thoughtful messages in the card.

A heartfelt thank you to you all for contributing to the amazing memories. x

The show was filmed and is currently being edited. Once I receive the the video, I will send you a link where you can create and account and download the video.

Once we have it, I will try to organise a showing where we can watch the show altogether again!

Have you seen the pictures?

Jen Kimber from Kimber Kreative took some stunning pictures of the students and some action shots during the first show. Performing families should have been sent the link to view however it is below if you would like to have a browse.

Performance Opportunities

12th May, Tudor square

Southern Maltings are hosting a market at Tudor square on the 12th May and the 19th July.

I would love it if we could get a few classes together to show off our dancers.

The market runs from 10am - 2pm, so it would be at some point in that time slot. Are you available?

Ware Carnival

Ware carnival is on the 6th July. I have asked if DancePro Academy could perform at the end of the parade on the main "stage" in the Priory. This allows students to still walk in the parade with their other groups.

Nearer the time I will be asking who might be available to see if we can get a dance or two together.

School fetes

Does your school have a date for its Summer fete?

If you would like DancePro Academy to perform there, then get in touch.

I will try to get a team together to perform some of our show dances.

Care homes

Another performance opportunity would be the local care homes.

We have performed to the residents for the last few Christmases and it really brightens the residents day.

If you would like to participate, let me know as I will be putting some dates together.

Exam classes

Due to current enrolment numbers, it is not always viable to run separate classes for each individual grade. Instead, most classes will continue to include two grades together. This is necessary to ensure the programme remains sustainable while still providing consistent and high-quality teaching.

Because of the way the syllabus is structured and the amount of content that needs to be covered, it is essential that students attend two classes per week. Even in cases where students are progressing well, this level of contact time is required to properly prepare them for assessment.

I am hoping to schedule a session for late October or early November. If everyone is ready we could go for a July session but as we're already in May this is highly unlikely. Additional classes will be introduced to cover the required material, including during holiday periods if we can. Attendance at these extra sessions will be expected.

I also want to emphasise the importance of regular practice outside of class. After performances or breaks, it is natural for some of the work to be forgotten, so consistent rehearsal at home is essential for progress and confidence going into exams.

In a small number of cases, some students are currently in a grade that may be slightly ahead of their readiness. In these situations, there is no pressure to rush through levels. It is more important that students develop the maturity, confidence, and technical foundation they need before moving forward.
